

Job Description – Bereavement Specialist

Expectations of all HRRV Employees

Support the mission, vision and values through unequalled quality patient care, professional competence, collaboration, communication, innovation, accountability, ownership and provide support to the entire agency regardless of their primary office location.

Position Summary

Provide bereavement support to hospice families in coordination with the interdisciplinary team and provide Journey programming to the broader community related to end-of-life and grief issues.

Qualifications

- Bachelor in Science in Social Work or Masters in counseling.
- Training and experience with grief and loss counseling of individuals and families; and group facilitation
- Training and experience in family dynamics and psychosocial assessment
- Experience in public speaking
- Strong communication skills

Certifications, Licenses, Registrations Required

- Licensure in North Dakota and Minnesota
- Current driver's license and auto insurance

Physical Requirements/Working Conditions

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to use hands to finger, handle, or feel; reach with hands and arms; and talk or hear. The employee frequently is required to stand and walk; occasionally required to stoop, kneel, or crouch. The employee is frequently required to sit for extended periods of time. The employee must regularly lift and/or move up to ten pounds, occasionally lift and/or move up to twenty pounds. Specific vision abilities required by this job include close vision, distance vision, color vision and adjust focus. The work environment is varied between the office, travel and location of speaking engagements and events. The employee is frequently asked to drive, occasionally drive to unfamiliar destinations